1	Carla Green v. Timothy Zuhoski	Balt. City Cir. Ct. 24-C-20-0001115	Isaac Klein, Esq.	1/7/2020	Plaintiff sued Officer Zuhoski for battery, false arrest, false imprisonment, violation of Art. 24 and Art. 26 of Maryland Constitution, Declaration of Rights. PO Officer had probable cause to believe that Plaintiff was intoxicated or impaired. Plaintiff failed Field Sobriety Test (FST) and was subsequently arrested. Plaintiff later passed breathalyzer and was released. Plaintiff sues for the following damages: compensatory, pain, suffering, punitive.
2	Estate of Curtis Jamal Deal v. Detective David Kincaid	D. Md. 20-cv-00799	J. Wyndal Gordon, Esq. The Law Office of J. Wyndal Gordon, P.A.	2/5/2020	On Feb. 7, 2017, Det. Kincaid was in a foot pursuit of Plaintiff/Decedent, Curtis Deal, who had bailed out of the left rear passenger door of a car that was driving erratically. As Mr. Deal continued to run from Det. Kincaid, the decedent turned around and pointed his weapon in the directions of the Detective. Det. Kincaid fired his weapon fatally shooting the plaintiff/decedent multiple times. The decedent/plaintiff's estate is alleging that the plaintiff/decedent pleaded for medical attention multiple times which were ignored, which ultimately led to his death.
3	Gary Brown v. Jemmell Rayam, et al.	D. Md. 20-cv-00487	Joshua Leland Insley Saller, Lord, Ernstberger & Insley	2/24/2020	Plaintiff alleges that, on or about June 8, 2009, he was pulled over and detained without cause and that officers stole $11,000 from the trunk of his car.
4	Rich v. Herzl, et al.	D. Md. 20-cv-00488	Joshua Leland Insley, Esq. Hannah M. Ernstberger, Esq. Saller, Lord, Ernstberger & Insley	2/24/2020	Plaintiff claims that a firearm was planted on him and he was unlawfully arrested on October 2, 2007. He claims that he was arrested in part because he filed an Internal Affairs complaint against one of the officers approximately one week before he was arrested. Plaintiff also alleges that the head of IAD did not properly investigate his complaint or discipline the officers involved in Plaintiff's arrest. Plaintiff alleges claims for Federal and State Constitutional violations.
5	Avon Allen v. Marcus Taylor, et al.	D. Md. 20-cv-00489	Joshua Leland Insley Hannah M. Ernstberger Saller, Lord, Ernstberger & Insley	2/24/2020	On January 13, 2016, Plaintiff was speaking with three friends in the 2200 block of Fulton Avenue when he was arrested by members of the GTTF for an alleged handgun violation. According to Plaintiff, the defendant officers would argue that they were wearing tactical vests. They pulled to a stop claiming that Plaintiff appeared to be armed. Plaintiff ran, slipped, fell, and an officer saw a gun. Plaintiff got up, picked up the weapon, and ran again. Taylor tackled Plaintiff but he [Plaintiff] tossed the gun into the sewer. Plaintiff claims he was beaten for resisting arrest. Plaintiff's first trial allegedly resulted in a mistrial. He was subsequently re-indicted, but the charges were dismissed before trial. Plaintiff alleges claims for violations of the Federal and State constitutions.
6	Bernard Gough v. Jemell Rayam, et al.	D. Md. 20-cv-00542	Howard A. Milliman Mandy L. Milliman D'Alesandro & Milliman, P.A.	2/28/2020	Plaintiff alleges that on or about October 9, 2007, he was driving a car when he was shot in the head/neck area by a police officer without cause. Plaintiff alleges that the officer did not render aid despite the seriousness of the injuries. Further, he claims that officers falsified criminal charges against him, to which he pled guilty and was incarcerated until his conviction was vacated on motion of the State's Attorney's Office on or about November 27, 2019.

7	Shawn Whiting v. Marcus Taylor, et al.	D. Md. 20-cv-00540	Joshua Leland Insley Hannah M. Ernstberger Saller, Lord, Ernstberger & Insley	2/28/2020	Plaintiff alleges that he was unlawfully arrested on January 24, 2014, following the execution of a search warrant at Plaintiff's home. Plaintiff claims that the warrant was based upon false statements. Plaintiff alleges that money and other property was stolen during that search. Plaintiff's complaint alleges violations of the Fourth and Fourteenth Amendments of the United States Constitution, Article 24 of the Maryland Declaration of Rights, and civil conspiracy.
8	Sherman Thomas v. Jemell Rayam, et al.	D. Md. 20-cv-00541	Joshua Leland Insley Hannah M. Ernstberger Saller, Lord, Ernstberger & Insley	2/28/2020	This lawsuit arises from Plaintiff's arrest following the June 18, 2015 execution of three search warrants, one of which was for Plaintiff's home. Plaintiff was charged with possession of ammunition as a prohibited person, along with other charges relating to the drugs and guns recovered during the execution of the warrants. Plaintiff claims the affidavits in support of the warrants were based on false information from a confidential informant. Plaintiff pled guilty to two counts of the indictment against him, and received a five year sentence. Following the indictments of several former GTTF officers, many of whom assisted in obtaining the warrants and arresting Plaintiff, Plaintiff's sentence was vacated. Plaintiff's complaint alleges violations of the Fourth and Fourteenth Amendments of the United States Constitution, Article 24 of the Maryland Declaration of Rights, and civil conspiracy.
9	Jamal Walker, et al. v. Wayne Jenkins, et al.	D. Md. 20-cv-00572	Ivan Bates Bates & Garcia, LLC	3/2/2020	Plaintiffs allege that, on November 3, 2010, Defendants performed an illegal search of Jamal Walker's car during which Defendants planted drugs and stole money from the vehicle before unlawfully arresting Jamal Walker. Defendants then proceeded to Jamal Walker's residence where they performed an illegal search, planted evidence, and unlawfully arrested Jovonne Walker. Plaintiffs allege violations of the federal and state constitutions.
10	Jawan Richards v. Carmine Vignola, et al.	D. Md. 20-cv-00571	Ivan Bates Bates & Garcia, LLC	3/2/2020	Plaintiff alleges that, on January 27, 2016, effectuated an unlawful stop of the car he was driving and, under the false pretense that Plaintiff attempted to flee, shot him in the neck. Plaintiff contends that he was wrongfully arrested after a gun and drugs were planted in his vehicle. Plaintiff subsequently pled guilty to criminal charges and was incarcerated. He alleges violations of the federal and state constitutions.
11	Kenesha Cutchemember v. Sufraim Hassan, et al.	Balt. City Cir. Ct. 24-C-20-001617	Mark E. Rollison Engel Law Group, P.C.	3/17/2020	Plaintiff alleges that, upon a second stop of her vehicle for equipment-related violations, she was detained and questioned, subjected to an illegal search, and her belongings removed from the vehicle. She alleges violations of the Maryland Constitution.
12	McPherson -Simmons v. Baltimore Police Department, et al.	D. Md. 20-cv-00795	Loevy & Loevy (Chicago)	3/27/2020	Plaintiffs allege wrongful conviction after serving 24 years in prison. Mr. McPherson and Mr. Simmons were convicted of the murder of Anthony Wooden, who was shot to death. They allege that police withheld witness statements and a confession from the real killer. They also filed a Monell claim against Baltimore Police Department.

13	Albert Brown v. Wayne Jenkins, et al.	D. Md. 20-cv-00971	Tony Garcia, Esq Bates & Garcia, LLC	4/15/2020	Plaintiff alleges, on August 1, 2016, former Officers Jenkins and Rayam were working in plain clothes in an unmarked vehicle. The Officers stopped him without justification or cause and searched his vehicle. He was falsely arrested and charged with narcotics and firearm charges. Defendant Officers then proceeded to Plaintiff's house and performed a warrantless search, which resulted in additional narcotics charges. The charges were eventually nolle prossed by the SAO.
14	Dashawn McGrier v. Arthur Williams, et al.	D. Md. 20-cv-01235	Kenneth Ravenell Ravenell Law  Tomeka Church Law Office of Tomaka G. Church, LLC	4/17/2020	Plaintiff alleges that, on August 11, 2018, former Officer Arthur Williams assaulted him. He contends that the assault was unprovoked and that Officer Smith-Saxon failed to intervene to stop the assault. He asserts a claim for battery as well as several claims under the Maryland and federal constitutions.
15	Darnell Earl v. Taylor, et al.	D. Md. 20-cv-01355	A. Dwight Pettit Law Offices of A. Dwight Pettit, P.A.	6/2/2020	Plaintiff alleges that, on October 18, 2015, the car in which he was a passenger was unlawfully stopped by former GTTF members and that during the search, the officers planted a firearm. Plaintiff asserts that the planted firearm was the basis for fabricated firearms charges to which he pled guilty and was subsequently incarcerated for roughly 18 months. Plaintiff asserts federal constitutional violations as well as state law torts.
